Official Form 309A (For Individuals or Joint Debtors)

Amended to Correct Debtor's Mailing Address Order and Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case 12/17

For the debtors listed above, a case has been filed under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. An order for relief has been entered.

This notice has important information about the case for creditors, debtors, and trustees, including information about the meeting of creditors and deadlines. Read all pages carefully.

The filing of the case imposed an automatic stay against most collection activities (see Bankruptcy Code §362 for prohibited collection actions). This means that creditors generally may not take action to collect debts from the debtors, from the debtors' property, or from certain codebtors. For example, while the stay is in effect, creditors cannot sue, garnish wages, assert a deficiency, repossess property, or otherwise try to collect from the debtors. Creditors cannot demand repayment from debtors by mail, phone, or otherwise. Creditors who violate the stay can be required to pay actual and punitive damages and attorney's fees. Under certain circumstances, the stay may be limited to 30 days or not exist at all, although debtors can ask the Court to extend or impose a stay.

The debtors are seeking a discharge. Creditors who assert that the debtors are not entitled to a discharge of any debts or who want to have a particular debt excepted from discharge may be required to file a complaint in the Bankruptcy Clerk's Office within the deadlines specified in this notice. (See section number 9 for more information.)

To protect your rights, consult an attorney.

The staff of the Bankruptcy Clerk's Office cannot give legal advice.

To help creditors correctly identify debtors, debtors submit full Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Numbers, which may appear on a version of this notice. However, the full numbers must not appear on any document filed with the Court.

Do not file this notice with any proof of claim or other filing in the case. Do not include more than the last four digits of a Social Security or Individual Taxpayer Identification Number in any document, including attachments, that you file with the Court.

11. Foreign Creditors	If you are a creditor receiving a notice mailed to a foreign address, you may file a motion asking the Court to extend the deadlines in this notice. Consult an attorney familiar with United States Bankruptcy Law if you have any questions about your rights in this case.
12. Exempt property	The law allows debtors to keep certain property as exempt. Fully exempt property will not be sold and distributed to creditors. Debtors must file a list of property claimed as exempt. You may inspect that list at the Bankruptcy Clerk's Office or online at www.pacer.gov . If you believe that the law does not authorize an exemption that the debtors claim, you may file an objection by the deadline to object to exemptions.

For more information, see page 3 &gt;

13. Abandonment of Property	At the meeting of creditors, the Trustee may announce the abandonment of specific property of the estate that is burdensome or of inconsequential value. Any objection to this abandonment must be filed in writing with the Clerk's Office and the Trustee within 14 days after the conclusion of the meeting of creditors.
14. Domestic Support Obligation – Child Support	The holder of any claim for unpaid pre-petition child support is entitled to have the trustee provide such creditor with notice of the creditor's right to use the services of the state child support enforcement agency and supply such creditor with the address and telephone number of the state child support enforcement agency and an explanation of the creditor's rights to payment in the Bankruptcy case. Any creditor may request such notice and information by writing the trustee. Such creditor is further entitled to have the trustee provide the creditor with (i) notice of the granting of the discharge, (ii) any last known address of the debtor, (iii) debtor's most recent employer, and (iv) information concerning other claims on which the debtor may be liable following a discharge. Failure to request such information from the trustee shall be a waiver of the right to receive such notice from the trustee.
